

Aboriginal Culture by Sofie

Food

Aboriginals had a very healthy diet Full of healthy vitamins.they eat kangaroos and eggs also they eat they ate lots of meat 🦘 also they eat Berry's from the bush or, fish from the sea.And they also will eat oyster. They used mines to catch The animals they also ate snakes and lizards, Goannas too!

Clothing

They were a riji and a very worm things cold possum skin when it's snowing

They also wear Kangaroo skin or they paint all over themselves.

The applications usually put bark all leads and grass tied together

You might find paintings all over the walls. It also represents people stories in Most of Australia

shelter

Australia has very hot climate and people often slept out in the open. To keep themselves warm at night they would sleep close to a fire. Aboriginals Housing mostly consisted of simple Shelters made from branches and Then covered in Leaves sheets of bark. In the wet and cold conditions, closed dome-shaped Shelter were made. Sticks were bent over and bark, Grass and leaves were used to cover the Shelter

Transport

The main form of transport amongst traditional indigenous people was walking. Because the indigenous lifestyle was nomadic, people had to do a lot of walking to get from the place to place. Who is indigenous groups that lived near the coast or large bodies of water would often travel in canoes that they had made from hollowed out tree trunks. Canoes were very helpful in the fishing activities, as well travelling around.

Music

Aboriginals played the didgeridoo also they used rain sticks.

The didgeridoo is only played by men and usually is played during ceremonies, singing and dancing. The Australian Aboriginals have had no written language and rely on oral methods and music to pass on their knowledge. Music is used throughout an Aboriginals life to teach what must be known about their culture, about their place in it and about the world of nature.

