

Anita Heiss

Anita Heiss is a proud member of the Wiradjuri nation of central NSW (New South Wales). She is known for being an author, novelist, poet, activist, and presenter. She had some amazing achievements in her life which were, a lifetime ambassador, an awards finalist, and even more. Lots of interesting things happened from when she was born.

Anita was born on the 14th of August 1968 in Sydney. Her family members are Elise (mother), Joe (father), Josef and Mark (brothers). Anita is the youngest out of her siblings. She is 54 years old; Josef is 58 years old, and Mark is 62 years old. When she was around 4, 5 etc. She went to USNW elementary school.

When Anita was around 18, 19 or 20 years old she enrolled in a PhD in media and communication at the university of Western Sydney in 1996. A few years later (after university) she spent 2 years working on her doctoral thesis on Gold Coast. All this really challenging work helped her to receive some amazing achievements and highlights.

Some of these amazing achievements and highlights were a lifetime ambassador, an awards finalist, an advocate, and 4 deadly awards for outstanding achievement in literature.

All this information was on Anita Heiss and as I just mentioned she was born on the 14th of August, she is part of the Wiradjuri nation of NSW (New South Wales), she had 2 siblings, she enrolled in a PhD in media and communication at the university of western Sydney, and she was a lifetime ambassador, an awards finalist, an advocate, and she had won 4 deadly awards for outstanding achievement in literature.