

Browyn Bancroft

by Olivia C

Browyn Bancroft was born in 1958 in New South Wales. She has seven siblings and is the youngest in her family. In world war II her dad was an engineer and her mum a designer that is were she must get her inspiration from.

Browyn Bancroft had to travel for school she first in 2003 went to sydney for arts then in 2006 went to Cambra School Of Arts.

Browyn Bancroft is a designer, visual artist, illustrator and is in the popular kids show play school. Browyn Bancroft was married to ned manning who was also her teacher at one point.

She made a design company in 1985. Browyn Bancroft was one of the first Australians to be invites to paris to show there work and also some of her work was shown in the national gallery of NewSouth Wales. She has illustrated 40 books and is on the kids television show play school.